LOCAL NEWS.

AMBREMENTS TO-NIGHT

GROVER'S THEATER -"The Mock Duke, or the Honey Moon," and "Cool as a Cucumber," are the attractions selected for this evening. In the first play, Setchell, Tilton and Miss Jennie Parker appear in the principal roles Miss Lotty Hough will also appear. Mr. Meldrum appears in his decidedly "cool" character of Plumper, in the Comedietta, with pretty Effle Germon as Wiggins.

FORD's ATHENRUM .- This pleasant resort opens this evening for the summer season. The performance commences with the great burlesque of "Mszeppa, or the Untamed Rocking Horse," with Stewart Robson as Mazeppa, and Mrs. Bishop as the "Pearl of Poland." After which the remarkable and amusing performance of Com. Foote and Col. Small; and the evening's entertainment concludes with the "Hypocrite," with Stuart Robson as "Mawworm."

ODD FELLOWS' HALL .- Conant and Stanley's gigantic illustrations of the war for the Union will be presented to the public to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall. The exhibition comprises views of cities, army and naval movements, battles, skirmishes and burning and sinking of ships, and other interesting views.

CANTERBURY .- Manager Percival adds a new star to his already fine list in the person of Miss Clara Butler, who, for several months, has been the feature of the western theaters, who will appear to-night for the first time. Her beauty and exquisite vocal powers render her a great favor-ite. Dick Parker, Talbot, and the entire court of beauty will also appear.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-Rosenthal continues to dispense first-class refreshments, liquid and solid, at the same time that he gives a fine concert without extra charge.

YE GREEN-EYED MONSTER .- On Saturday, a lady! who, for short, we will call Mrs. A., while walking along Pennsylvania avenue, spied her liege lord gallanting a fascinating piece of "wo-man flesh," and bestowing upon her winning smiles and devoted attentions. He appeared so infinitely happy, that his loving spouse, feeling the painful influence of "ye green-eyed monster," gave loose rein to her passion, and inflicted a severe blow upon the fair face of her husband's charmer, who we will designate as Mrs. or Miss B., (we can't tell exactly which) Miss B wanted to know "what that was for;" and Mr. A. clutching the arm of his irate better half, and inflicting a horrible gash in the "goods" on the lady's sleeve, begged her to desist. But Mrs. A would not desist for him "or any other man"—insisted that she had the best and prior claim to the attentions of the faithless son of Adam, and inflicted another scratch upon Miss B. for walking with "ber man." A police officer being seen approaching, both ladies made off, one west, and the other east, leaving the husband and "lovyer" alone in his glory, to brood over the uncertainties of happiness in this life. Mrs. A. continued down the avenue, seeking a boarding house; but she could not possibly be suited, as she wanted one where there were no other women, as her husband was disposed to be sweet on strange ladies, and she was terribly jealous and ready for a fight with any one who attempted the theft of her husband's affections.

ARREST OF FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE -Attempt of one to escape .- Saturday night and yesterday morning, Sergeant Lowner and Detective Officer Boss succeeded in capturing James Mowbray and Al. Riley, two fugitives from justice in Philadelphia. Mowbray was arrested upon a ball piece at the instance of his security, who had him arrested here Al. Riley is a sharp fellow, who was arrested in Philadelphia and committed to prison for vagrancy; but while being conducted from the mayor's office to the prison, they traversed a passage in which was a door locking with a spring; the officer led the way, and when he passed the door Riley sprang back and slammed the door, locking the officer in, and walked away moment, to give him air in the guard room. The attention of the officer in charge was drawn away for a single moment, and Riley slipped up to the bunk-room of the Second-ward station, and dropped himself from the second-story window. Persons outside saw him, but did not give notice to police, and he was off for several hours. Last night Sergeant Downer found his hiding place and returned him to the cell, and to-day he will start for Philadelphia.

ARRIVAL OF MORE SICK AND WOUNDED .- A train of cars arrived yesterday from Rectortown and Manassas, bringing several hundred sick and wounded soldiers for the hospitals of Alexandria and Washington. From a gentleman who came in on the train, and who was with it from the time it left on Thursday, we learn the fol-lowing particulars. The sick of the several divisions in and about that neighborhood were collected at Rectortown for the purpose of being sent back. On Thursday morning last the cars were loaded with the sick; some of the cars were simply platform cars, with no shelter over them, and the sick men suffered much. Thursday and Friday nights it rained, and the sick who were upon the platforms had nothing whatever to cover them except their blankets. At Manassas, where the train lay nine hours, a number of gentlemen procured such necessaries as they could, and distributed them among the sick. Our informant states that there appeared to be no efforts what-At Rectortown and other places, bread and milk, and other nutritious and necessary diet, could easily have been procured, but no effort whatever was made to obtain it. Some parties on board the train threatened to report the matter to headquarters at Washington.

GOOD SAMARITANS .- Mrs Harlan, wife of the Senator from lows, and Mrs. Joseph T. Fales, of this city, returned on Tuesday last from Pittsburg Landing, whither they had gone to care for the sick and wounded, immediately after the great battle at that place. Mrs. Harlan went out with authority from the War Department, and, assisted by Mrs. Fales, has been unceasing in her efforts to relieve the sick and wounded and alleviate their sufferings. They arrived at Pittsburg Landing immediately after the aght, and commenced immediately their good work. For five or six weeks these ladies have been indefatigable in their exertions, enduring the changes of weather, heat and cold, rain and sunshine, and for many devoted to the low t troops, having charge of contributions of necessaries and delicacies from citizens of lows, and administering specially to the wants of the troops from that State. Mrs. Harlan purposes returning to the Western Department in a few days.

OPERATIONS OF THE PROVOST GUARD .- Lient. W. G. Raymond, of the 86th New York volunteers, and his assistants, have been doing a very effective business in breaking up resorts of in-famy, where soldiers and bad characters most do congregate. During the past week they have searched a great number of suspected establishments, and have recovered over $1,500 worth of Government property, such as uniforms, blankets, shoes, &c., &c., pawned by soldiers for "tangle-foot" whisky. They have also destroyed a large quantity of the poison. Most of the crimes and misdemeanors of the soldiers can be traced to a beginning at these unlicensed hell holes, where not whisky, but pure unadulterated poison is dispensed. A number of petty gambling hells have also been broken up, and descents were also made upon two of the more prominent ones. . In the first one, in addition to the checks and property taken, over $1,300 in money was captured, and is now on deposit in one of the banks of this city until something satisfactory could be ascertained as to its ownership.

MARRIAGE IN & MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE .- On Saturday afternoon a citizen, accompanied by a cavalry soldier and a German lady, went to the office of Justice Clayton, and asked that the soldier and the lady might be made one, in the holy bands of matrimony. The justice, being a min-ister, replied that he would be happy to officiate, if the necessary license was procured, and directed them to the office of the cierk of the court, where it could be procured; and the party left, walking to the City Hall, where they provided themselves with the "document," and immediately returned to the justice's office. The couple promptly took their places in front of the justice, in the presence of the police officers, constables and others there assembled, and were soon made one. After re-ceiving the congratulations of the justice, officers and others, the twain went on their way rejoicing. The parties were Mr. Thil Gort, of the cavalry service, and Miss Sophia Seidenberg, of this city.

A Row .- On Saturday morning a difficulty occurred on Sixth street, near P, between some Irish families, which originated in a difficulty about paying the rent. Officer S. T. Crown ar rested two women named Bridget Collins and Mary Cornell, who appeared to be the principals and took them before Justice Clayton. While the parties were at the office a man named Kane set Mrs. cornell's furniture out of doors, and Mr. Cornell hearing of it, immedia'ely procured counsel and went to Justice Clayton's office to procure a warrant against Kane for forcible entry and detainer. Here the other parties were met, and they all talked the matter over, and after some discussion a compromise was agreed upon, and the case was dismissed.

SECOND EDITION

THREE O'CLOCK, P. M.

LATEST FROM MCCLELLAN'S ARMY. Despatches have been received from General McCiellan's beadquarters up to a late hour this foreneon. The engagement of yesterday had not been renewed to-day. The reports of brigades and divisions were rapidly being sent in, and they go to confirm the impression existing there. that the Union victory was overwhelming and most important. The hope only remaining of the rebel leaders was evidently based on beating a portion of our army before the rest could establish themselves on the south side of the Chickshominy. We apprehend, from all we learn, that serious resistance to the measures of the General in command: to take what positions he choses, is no longer likely to be made there.

There is no truth in the story of the death of Generals Heintzleman and Palmer. So far, the names of none of our killed and wounded are known here.

IMPORTANT GENERAL ORDERS. War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, June 1, 1862.

General Orders, No. 57. The Department of Virginia is extended to include that part of Virginia south of the Rappahannock and east of the rallroad from Fredercksburg to Richmond, Petersburg and Welden. Major General Geo B. McClellan, U. S. Army. will assume command thereof, and of all the U.

S. forces within its limits. Major General John E. Wool, U.S. Army, is assigned to the command of the Middle Department, and will proceed to Baltimore and assume the command thereof.

Major General John A. Dix, U. S. Volunteers, will proceed immediately to Fort Monroe and assume command at that point, reporting to Major General McClellan for orders.

By order of the Secretary of War. L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

MORE NAVAL CAPTURES.

A late arrival from the Gulf brings intelligence. of the capture of several of the class of vessels reported abroad as continually running the blockade loaded with cotton. Among them are the British sloop Annie of fourteen tons burthen, which ran out of a creek near Mobile, laden with forty bales cotton; the British sloop Sarah and the Confederate sloop New Engle, each not larger than a frigate's launch, and having on board fifty bales cotton.

Acting Vol. Lieut. Calhoun, of the steamer Hunchback, reports the capture in the rivers of North Carolina of four schooners.

VALUABLE SEIZURES.

The Navy Department have information of the recent capture by the gunboat Huron and steamers Bienville and Augusta of two British steemers, the Cambria and Patras, and the rebel steamer Kate, (the latter beached,)-all laden with arms, munitions of war and other contraband goods. They were engaged in endeavoring to run the blockade of Charleston. They were each the prize of a single vessel in the order named above.

SHOWING THE CLOVEN FOOT .- The New York Tribune notoriously as anxious for the defeat of the Army of the Potomac, that the duration of the war may be protracted, and the contest thereby be turned into a mere abolition war, as too many of the abolitionists of Congress are, this morning, we learn by telegraph, announced our signal victory of yesterday before Richmond as a Union defeat! "The wish" is, of course, the father to the thought.

PERSONAL .- Gov. F. H. Pierpont, of Va; Rev. Dr. Cheever, Mass ; Lt. Harvey Royse, H. B. M. ship Racer; Hon. Jas. T. Hale, Pa., and Hon. C. Vibbard, N. Y., are at Willard's.

CONGRESSIONAL.

MONDAY, June 2. SENATE.-Mr. Sherman presented a petition for the enlargement (by the Government) of the locks of the Erie and Oswego canal for the passage of Mr. Chandler made an adverse report from the Committee of Commerce on a private claim; laid on the table. Mr. Sumner presented a petition from Boston for the enactment of a general bankrupt law.

Mr. Sumner moved the reference of the President's emancipation message to the Committee on Foreign Relations; so referred. Mr. Sumner also introduced a resolution calling on the War Department for its orders appointing provisional governors for Tennessee and North Carolina, and of any instructions given to such governors. Mr. Sumner then addressed the Senate, detailing an alleged conversation between Gov. Stanley, of N. C., and an abolition negro school teacher named Collier, in which the latter was forbidden to pursue his avocation longer in Newbern, &c., and went on to deprecate the policy of Governor Stanley, in the name of the United States, as unjust and improper; resolution adopted. House -Hon. W. J. Allen, of Ill., member elect, appeared and was qualified. The Senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill were taken up for consideration.

> --LATE LOCAL NEWS.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY, is progressing with remarkable quiet, thus far. The Superintendent of the police had made ample arrangements for the suppression of any disturbance, should any occur, and the Provost Guard had also an eye to the preservation of good order. The restaurants are pretty generally closed, in obedience to a request of the Mayor and City Councils, and in consequence but few cases of drunkenness are noticed at the polls. About the polls of the Second Ward this mornng, the following handbill was displayed: Anti-Administration National or Democratic Ticket - Second Ward. "All voters who are opposed to the present National Administration and are in favor of States Rights, and particularly of vindicating the rights of the South, are earnestly urged to rally to the polis and cast their votes for the following ticket: "For Mayor-James F. Hallday.

"For Alderman-Thomas J. Fisher, "For Common Council-Nicholas Callan, Grafton Powell, and John F. Ennis." This was doubtless the work of some of the opponents of the ticket. As an offset, the "tother side," in some of the wards, have tickets bearing the name of Richard Wallach for Mayor, surmounted by the picture of a negro. First Ward .- At one o'clock p. m. 135 votes had been cast, of which 94 were Unconditional Union." In the second precinct the vote was very near a tie, Haliday protably a little ahead.

Second Ward.—Up to noonthe voting was progressing quietly at the First Precinct; no signs of any disturbance. of any disturbance. In the Second Precinct the voting is pretty brisk, although the poll is very light so far. Wallach, it is thought, has received three-fourths of the votes cast. A disturbance took place at the window about 11 o'clock. Mr. R. H. Gillett coming up to vote, be was challenged, at which he got angry and called the challenger and his friends a parcel of paid sooundrels. The police immediately arrested him and took him to the Second Ward Station, where he was fined $1.

Third Ward.—In the first precinct everything is going on quietly. At half-past eight this morning the vote stood 55 for Wallack, and 5 for Hallday, and the same proportions had been kept up to 11 o'clock, when 250 votes had been polled. In the second precinct this morning the vote was 60 for Wallach, and 2 against him.

Fourth Ward—In the first precinct everything was going on quietly up to ten o'clock, when some 300 votes had been polled, of which only so he 50 or 60 were for Hallday. In the second precinct 296 votes had been cast up to 12 o'clock.

precinct 296 votes had been cast up to 12 o'clock. Up to that hour the vote between Wallach and tialiday appeared to be very close at that precinct.

Fifth Ward.—In the first precinct Wallach was thought to be considerably ahead. In the second thought to be considerably ahead. In the second precinct the voting was going on quietly, and was very light up to ten o'clock. The Haliday men were temporarily put back this morning by fiading that their election money was not of the right stripe for use, being Maryland funds. At last accounts (12 o'clock) some 300 votes had been polied, of which about 260 were for Wallach.

Sixth Ward—At the first precinct the voting this morning was proceeding very sluggishly—some 150 had been cast at 10 o'clock, of which Mr. Haliday had received some 28. In the second precinct the vote stood this morning, for Wallach about four to one, some 200 votes having been cast. In each of these precincts there was much challenging. The voters mostly, however, were well prepared, having brought their certified oaths and papers in their pockets.

Seventh Ward.—The Seventh Warders were doing their voting with commendable good order, and up to 10 o'clock in the first precinct had polled 153 votes for Wallach and 24 for Halid. In the second precinct, up to the same hour. 103 had been polled for Wallach, against 7 for fiail-day.
